That the new "gin marriage" law requiring three days interval between application and securing a marriage license, has cut the number of nuptials in the state, enormously is shown in statistics released yesterday by the state department.

A fog accompanied the departure of the Queen of Spain from London. "Good-night," said King George as the Queen entered the train.

Betty Blythe is "one of the most agreeable speeders" a certain Los Angeles traffic cop has ever known. She yesterday took the bad news with an equanimity that surprised this veteran of the asphalt road.

Giving the soviet consul general at Shanghai his passport, the Nationalist government broke off relations with Russia.

"Bill" McCulloch, 22, yesterday surrendered to the police, the third of youths accused by Sally Whitcomb of an alleged gin party attack. All affirm their innocence.

Four Senators—Borah, Norris, LaFollette, and Heflin, were yesterday named as accepting Mexican gold as cash fund, in a quiz conducted by the Senate special committee.

Eight foreign nations yesterday paid $400,000,000 into the coffers of Uncle Sam. The money was in payment on the funded indebtedness of the countries.

The Key Route ferry Perrito dug a submarine cavern under the center of the Ferry building with the backwash from its propeller. The cave was 30 feet deep, 40 feet wide and 50 feet long.

MEXICO GIVES
LINDY HONORS

(By Universal Service)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 15.—After his first full day in Mexico's ancient capital, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh tonight declared that the most impressive reception of his whole life was the welcome accorded him by the Mexican people.

Col. Lindbergh started the day early with a visit to the Mexican Foreign office at 9:30. Accompanied by Ambassador Morrow and Secretary of the Embassy Winslow, Lindbergh paid a call on acting secretary of foreign affairs, Estrada.

From that hour the air here was kept busy with official and private receptions and functions ending late tonight when he was the guest of honor at a government feast in one of Mexico City's largest theaters.

During Lindbergh's early visit to the Foreign Office all clerical activities were suspended. Clerks thronged the corridors, the girls

Manufacture of a specialized line of chemical glassware will start as soon as the building is constructed, it is said.

There is at the present time no pottery west of the Rocky Mountains supplying the needs of Pacific coast chemical industries, and establishment of the new industry will fill a long felt want.

The pottery is located on the Santa Fe tracks between Schmidt Lane and Manila avenue.

IS C. C. TO BE MADE
A MONTE CARLO?Busy Shopping
Period Faces
Richmond In
Next 7 DaysSecretary of Merchants
Assn. Suggests Ways
To Simplify Task

In view of the fact that Richmond is facing during the next seven days probably the busiest shopping period the city ever has known, Clifford Anglin, Secretary of the Richmond Merchants' Association, yesterday made these suggestions as to how shoppers may simplify their tasks and get better results:

1. Make out at home tentative shopping lists. Study your newspaper advertising columns, remembering that expert merchandisers have given intensive study to the gift suggestions carried in these Christmas store announcements.

By listing your gift needs, and studying store advertising, you can route your shopping trip and save many unnecessary steps.

2. Get downtown early in the morning. Stores are far less crowded, clerks less tired, and stocks are in better shape during the first two hours after the store opens.

3. Carry home at least your small bundles. Remember that during the next six days stores will be doing double their normal daily business and that annoying mistakes in the delivery of your packages are far more likely to occur at this season than at any other times.

4. If the article must be delivered, find out from the clerk the probable time of delivery and have some responsible person at your home at that time to receive the package. Much Christmas merchandise is delayed in delivery through failure to do this.

5. Keep young children out of the downtown section during the rush season unless accompanied by parents or some responsible older person.

6. Make every possible purchase Saturday or nearly next week. Early shopping has been unusually heavy throughout the country this year, and the merchant's stocks are being depleted rapidly.

"I do not love you and I want to be free," Waters quotes his wife as telling him on one occasion. They separated on December 14. The suit was filed through Attorney T. M. Carlson.

"Well, it's a great life!" Richmond's Santa Claus paused in his peregrinations about the streets and mopped a feverish brow with a gorgeous handkerchief. "It may be cold weather for some people, but believe me I think I'm in the tropics after trapping block after block!" He grinned through his white beard. "But it's worth it—the way the kids' faces light up whenever I stop and talk to them. Great to be young, isn't it?"

GOES OVER BIG
Santa Claus is "going over big" in Richmond. "One of the nicest Santa Clauses I ever had" one busy shopper said yesterday. "I had intended to 'snooze' but saw a scooter that 'scooped' just made for Junior," and dashed to the store before some one else secured it.

KIDDIES' PARTY TOMORROW
Santa Claus is not the only treat that Richmond merchants have prepared for the holiday season. Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock all children under the age of 12 years will be guests at a Christmas party in the California theatre, which has been turned over to the merchants' Christmas committee through the kindness of Manager Dan Reardon.

Two thousand boxes of candy will be distributed to the children and none of the little folks will be allowed to go away without a gift.

PROGRAM ON TAP
A fine program has been arranged for the occasion. Matilda Meyer's Kiddies will perform, and Larry Canale has a special program of the latest numbers to play on the pipe organ.

The police and fire departments will assure the safety of every child. Members of both departments will patrol the aisles and party for parents are advised that the party is exclusively a juvenile affair.

Richmond merchants report that shopping is in full blast and reiterate: "Do your gift buying early." Stores are open this week until 8 o'clock and next week will remain open until 9 o'clock.

Richmond Threatened
By Invasion Of Plug
Uglies, BullfightersHUGE ARENA UNDER CONSTRUCTION
TO SEAT 6,000; WORK RUSHED
FOR EASTER OPENING

Bull fights, prize fights, boxing contests, all kinds of games and refreshments are to be on the program of the big arena that is now being constructed, just outside of Richmond's door, on road 17, just west of the Giant highway and north of the town of San Pablo on the Silvas place, between the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroad. Here the plug uglies of the bay section and their following will congregate.

From information gleaned, an attempt is to be made to establish a Monte Carlo in this county, with all of its ramifications. Behind the move, it is stated are Alameda county men, but whose identity could not be learned yesterday.

OPEN ARENA ON EASTER
Elaborate preparations are being made for the opening event which will take place Easter Sunday, and a varied program that will appeal to the most fantastic mind is being arranged.

With the program that is contemplated there will be lots of gore from both man and beast. The picadors and toreadors on jaded horses will infuriate the beasts by thrusting banderillas, carrying their gaudy colored banderoles, in their flesh, and the matadors in their gaily decorated costumes will do the balance of the work.

Bull fighting has been abandoned among civilized people except in Spanish and Portuguese countries, but from all prospects Contra Costa is to be made the scene of its revival.

SHROUDED IN SECRECY
All of the preparations for the opening of this new "sport" place have been made with the utmost secrecy, but work is progressing at a exceedingly rapid rate.

Large quantities of lumber are now on the ground and more is arriving every day. On account of the last rain which left the ground in a soft condition, the working force has been decreased for a short time. Already one section of the arena is practically completed.

The Silvas ranch is five acres in extent, and that part not covered by the arena will be used to accommodate the large number of cars expected to require parking space.

WILL SEAT 6000
The arena is being built in the shape of a circle and will have a seating capacity of 6,000. The distance across the inside of the arena is 150 feet.

In the center of it will be erected a platform, with a canvas cover, at which the prize fights will take place.

At different points in the arena safety fences will be erected so that the matadors will be able to use them as a refuge in preventing themselves from being gored by the infuriated bulls.

IMPORT MATADORS
Matadors are to be imported who will have suits that will cost $1500 each.

Soft drink stands and eating booths will be erected and other small places, the use of which is not known. It has been intimated they will be used by pool-sellers.

THOUSANDS INVESTED
Just who the parties are behind the new venture could not be learned yesterday, except they are from the adjoining county, but the fact remains that thousands of dollars will be spent in fitting up the place for the purposes for which it is to be used.

Apparently the promoters have not been able to operate in Alameda county, and the question arises will they be permitted to pull off bull fights in this county.

The contractor is said to be August Manuel of Berkeley, but it was impossible to get in communication with him last evening.

TOOLS FOR THE SHOP
HARDWARE FOR THE HOME

There is such a small price difference between the disappointing and the satisfying kind of hardware that it never pays to take a chance. Manufacturers of quality hardware generally sell to hardware stores exclusively, and that is a very good reason why it pays to shop there. An article must be up to standard to meet requirements of stores advertising.

THE REAL INSANITY

After a career as hectic as that of a dime novel villain, George Remus, confronting a murder jury with himself in the role of defendant, turns to the old theory that if a man is crazy enough he can escape any consequences. He is like a child who feigns terrors to escape a momentary corporal application of the swishing stick.

Mrs. Ruth Snyder is also crazy—that is, nutty enough to escape the penalty for murder, but not so insane as to need incarceration in a booby hatch. What?

In the defense of insanity there is always a germ of truth. In 99 cases out of a hundred, the insanity is with those who let the processes of the courts be used for comedy relief. The real insanity is in the system of procedure that permits the stultifying of organized society's most sacred defenses by the criminal. If either or both of the present imbeciles succeeds with the insanity racket, the proof will be plain—the American people are a whole nation-wide asylum full of demented persons.

The other day Princess Victoria Schaumburg-Lippe sister of the former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany, married a penniless and untitled Russian, a former sailor named Alexander Subkoff. It may or may not be important that the bride is 61 years old and the groom only 27. The husband is now going to Berlin to look for a job to support his once royal wife.

Truly times have changed when such a matrimonial alliance is possible. Not long ago it was held that there were few among European royalty worthy of the hand of a Hohenzollern.

The most interesting feature of that wedding, however, was Brother Wilhelm's reaction to it. He merely sent the happy bride a wedding present that admirably fitted the situation. It was a 75-cent book entitled "Revolution and Overthrow."

Relations with Mexico are notably better since the financial diplomat, Mr. Morrow, went to Mexico City to represent the United States. It is agreed that the personality of the ambassador has a good deal to do with that. His methods of negotiation may have still more to do with it.

A recent dispatch shows that Mr. Morrow is given to direct, personal action instead of formality and red tape. While regardful of Mexican feelings and Latin etiquette he pushes the personal equation as far as possible. He doesn't send notes to Mexican officials, but goes and sees them, talking things over and brushes them out in a candid and courteous way, and thus usually comes to a satisfactory understanding.

This is the way intelligent and practical business men usually transact important business at home. The only wonder is that it seems to be used so little in international diplomacy.

Vigorous Health

WHAT HAS BECOME OF SHANK'S MARE? I presume Shank's Mare needs no special introduction. Most people are familiar with this synonym of walking, but we seldom hear much about the mare any more. Just as Dobbin has been replaced by Henry or Lizzie, so has Shank's Mare been replaced by various artificial forms of locomotion. The necessity for getting there in a hurry has practically forced humanity to give up the use of their legs and adopt more speedy means of travel such as automobiles, railroads, speed boats and elevators. All this has made the world smaller and has its advantages, but from the standpoint of health it is very bad.

Walking is one of the best forms of exercise and is almost indispensable for health-building. Almost any one can do some walking no matter what his condition. It requires no special apparatus and it is open to the poor and rich alike. Walking can be graduated both in distance and speed so as to be made either easy or strenuous. When so graduated it may be made the means of building up the general health, increasing the vitality and overcoming many diseases. It is especially valuable for heart diseases. Walking stimulates the circulation, it gives an internal massage which favors normal bowel action. The other channels of elimination are also stimulated, especially the lungs. Walking takes one out in the fresh air, makes one appreciate the beauties and benefits of nature and helps to keep one young.

I might go on enumerating the many advantages of walking, but space does not permit. I want to say, however, that a daily walk of three to five miles will be found of the greatest value for increasing health, happiness and success.

I found that when I practiced deep breathing, I became dizzy, so I stopped it. Is there any way to overcome this symptom? D. R. You probably started doing too much of it at once. When you are accustomed to breathing deeply it is well to start gradually with about three to five deep breaths several times per day, and gradually increase the number up to ten. The frequency can then be increased to as much every hour. As one becomes accustomed to the increased oxygenation and circulation induced by deep breathing, the dizziness will be overcome.

HE FLIES LOW WHO HAS A SLEEPY POSTURE

Perhaps you have been unaware of the detrimental influence of your position. Perhaps you have often felt fatigue yawning away in your bones and laid the blame at the wrong door. If you find yourself constantly slumping in your seat, establish a new habit, institute a correct posture until it becomes your natural position.

If you will watch men and women of affairs, whether they are great artists, successful society leaders or business "go-getters," you will find that they invariably sit with their heads up and their shoulders in an easy position. Their backs are straight, and their feet are flat on the ground.

The man who sits in this position shows that he is lacking in courage, stamina, backbone of the man who sits erect. His vital organs are cramped; his lungs are not free to do their best work. His legs, crossed, affect the nerve centers.

WHY I BLUSHED

One Saturday night my husband bought me a "hot dog." I was putting mustard on it when my husband walked away. Thinking he was still there I turned around and put the hot dog to a young man's mouth and said: "Here, take a bite." When I saw my mistake I dropped my hot dog and fled.

Affairs of the Heart and Your Marriage Problems

Patricia Lee

Patricia Lee answers questions relating to problems of married life. Names and address should be added to letters as a mark of good faith but will not be published. Readers who desire private answers should inclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover cost of typing, etc. Because of space limitations it is not possible to print answers to all letters received, and readers who wish an early reply should take advantage of this special department, about ten days should be allowed for a reply. Write to Patricia Lee, care of this paper.

How deeply a sarcastic word, but has never said anything as an impatient reply, an unsympathetic look can hurt when it comes from the person one loves. It really doesn't matter much whether, in our contact with other folk, our feeling is a bit ruffled, or some one intentionally or unintentionally hurts our pride or pricks the bubble of our own conceit. It is good for us, of course. We learn early in life not to be "thin-skinned" or if we don't we are unhappy, ill-adjusted beings who never fit into the scheme of life at all.

But in the intimate family life it is a different matter. People who truly love one another are attuned so delicately that they are most sensitive. A look, a word, an unspoken thought reflected in the face and the world is a different place! An ugly look, a harsh word or a cruel thought and the world is gloomy and unhappy, but it is just as true that a smile, a word of love, a sympathetic inclusion of the loved one in thought and the whole sphere is rosy.

What a great responsibility two people in love have for each other! Each has the other's happiness in his keeping and without happiness in life what have you? Dear Patricia Lee: I am very unhappy. I am 18 years old and have been going with a fellow 24. Everything was all right until he promised to come to see me one Tuesday night and did not come until Saturday. He was angry because I had not called him up. He has not been to see me since. I have not a very nice fellow who wants to see me. Do you think I should call up my friend and have a talk with him or accept the other man's company?—HOKUHI.

I don't see why it is not all right to call your friend on the phone and see if you can straighten things out if you wish to. Of course, it largely depends on just how intimate you were with him, but you certainly have the privilege of calling him and satisfying yourself on his attitude toward you. Dear Patricia Lee: I am very much in love, but my family does not like the man's family and his family doesn't like mine. They all insist that we should not marry and now he insists that we elope. Please tell me what to do. He tells me he will never forget me.—MARIA.

I don't approve of elopements as a general thing, as you no doubt know, but there are always exceptions. Have you both tried to convince your family that you are bound to get married to each other? Sometimes families have a way of thinking that by disapproving that they will break up a courtship but when they see that the young people concerned are in earnest, they give in quite readily—at least after the marriage. Dear Patricia Lee: Because of the death of my mother, I am living with my aunt and uncle. At first I was miserable because I thought that my uncle did not want me with them. A few months ago his nephew came to live with us. He is six or seven years older than I am, and I liked him from the very first. Things have been nicer all around. He has kissed me a few times.

CUTEST THING BABY EVER SAID

My neighbor's little boy (aged 6) had a good spanking and was now feeling more composed. He said: "Daddy, did you really spank me because you love me?" to his father.

"Yes, my little son, because I love you" said the father.

"Well, then," added the little man, "which of us do you love most, mother or me?"

MISS ELEANOR FINKEL.

UNCOOKED CANDIES

MADE IN THIS WAY

Dried fruits of all kinds, nuts, and sometimes peanut butter combined in various ways without being cooked make good Christmas candy, says the New York state college of home economics at Cornell University.

Dates, stuffed with nuts, and rolled in sugar are old favorites. Prunes and figs may also be stuffed and nuts are not the only filling.

The following recipes give some suggestions for stuffed fruits: Stuffed prunes, soak prunes overnight, dry them, cut lengthwise, remove stones, and allow to dry until they are just moist. Stuff filling made of a mixture of nuts and raisins or apricots. Roll in sugar. Stuffed dates, wash dates, dry them, cut lengthwise, remove stones, and stuff the same as prunes or with peanut butter or candied ginger. Roll in sugar.

DIGESTION AND EXERCISE

You enjoy food that is cooked over a camp fire after you have been exercising strenuously for several hours, but do you enjoy the food that you eat at home or in a restaurant, when you have been neglecting regular exercise for many weeks? Chances are that your appetite will be sluggish and your muscles flabby.

Remember that your digestion is very closely related to your muscular activity. Abdominal muscles, unless kept in good muscular tone, are apt to cause congestion because they allow the digestive organs to fall.

My pet is a Flemish Giant rabbit, Billy, who loves music. When my sister plays a piano Billy goes in the parlor and sits under a chair with his ears up. He enjoys the music. G. KLEIN.

BLAKE of Scotland Yard

By ROBERT F. HILL

CHAPTER IX

The Spider was invisible.

"Blake, you have crossed my path once too often." There was a menacing menace in his voice.

"Yes, possibly," replied Blake calmly, "but this time, to some purpose."

The Spider looked at him with contemptuous rage.

"You signed your death warrant," he announced like a judge pronouncing a sentence, "when you destroyed the gold formula! I then made a satiating eyes roved around the room. They rested on Albert, who was cringing against the wall."

"And as for you, Drexel!" He did not finish the sentence, instead he took the poker. Then he looked about for a coil of rope. Slightly he made a haugman's noose. When he was satisfied he turned to one of his men.

"Jim," he said, "there is a limit about ten feet from the ground and that needs a decoration. Just go out there and throw this rope over it."

The man was so busy at his task that he did not hear steps in the snow behind him. But he did hear: "Ist' em up, feller!"

With the rope end still in his hands, the man slowly raised his hands toward the sky, where they were bound with his own rope. Quick hands frisked him.

"His eyes your voice is good, Governor. You're to do a bit of 'ollierin'."

Facing him toward the house, Jarvis, for it was he, poked both guns into his stomach and commanded him:

"You shut wot Hi tells yer, good and loud," and he whispered in his ear.

The Spider was gingerly feeling of the red hot poker, Diana was silently crying in the corner, and Albert was staring in terror at the Spider, when all of them heard in frenzied tones from the front of the house:

"Run, Boss, the Mounties, the Mounties!"

The Spider and his men did not wait on the order of their going. Jarvis entered the lodge in triumph, merrily juggling his pair of guns.

"Hi scared the blomin' Spider that time, blime if Hi didn't!" He was busy heaving his master, Albert, went cheerfully up to Diana. He was a pitiful sight in his humiliation.

"Won't you forgive me, Diana?" he asked.

"No, I won't," she replied scornfully. "You have lied to me and you have betrayed your step-father. I hope that I shall never have to speak to you again."

With his head bowed down he walked out of the door. Diana had turned to the fire, and presently Blake came and stood beside her.

"I'm thinking of Uncle," she said slowly as he gazed at the little black pile that had been the formula, and his years of labor ending in a pinch

"Blake, the game is up," and they looked up into the face of the Spider.

SAHARA SCENE OF GREAT FILM AT CALIFORNIA

One of the greatest desert romances ever filmed, "The Garden of Allah," a Rex Ingram production for Metro-Goldwyn of Robert Hichens' famous novel comes to the California Theatre for an engagement of two days starting today.

Filmed in the sand wastes of the Sahara, the locality in which the story takes place, it has authentic reality. It tells the tale of a Trappist monk's love for an English girl, of his marriage to her, and of his subsequent return to the monastery after three months spent with her on the desert.

Alice Terry in the role of Domin, the girl who sends her lover back to the rigid seclusion of his cell even though she is rapturously in love with him at the time, has the greatest opportunity of her career. She is supported by Ivan Petrovich, a Serbian leading man new to American audiences, and a cast of continental players. Petrovich will doubtless become the new screen favorite on the strength of his portrayal of the monk who is torn between love for a woman and faith in his trust.

"The Garden of Allah" is a haunting romance filled with passion, heart-break and thrilling adventure.

Other features on the same program include another story of "The Collegians," full of college pep and youth, starring George Lewis; "International News"; and Larry Canelo, at the organ.

Coming Sunday, Sonny Clay's Plantation Band leading an all colored revue in one hour of the smartest entertainment ever seen in Richmond.

BUFFALO BILL, JR., FEATURED AT RICHMOND

Would you like to step into another man's shoes? Would you like to live another man's life? Do you think your wits would work quickly enough and cleverly enough to take another man's name and his place and work out his problems? That is what Buffalo Bill, Jr., does in "The Interferin' Gent," the Pathe Western in which he is starring at the Richmond Theatre today and tomorrow.

It is an adaptation of Range Rider's novelette called, "Circle D Borrows an Owner." It concerns a ranch that is left to a man who has been missing many years. His sister runs it while trying to locate the brother she has not seen since babyhood. When Bill Stannard comes along, apparently knowing things about the situation at the ranch that only her brother could know, she accepts him as Ben.

The ranch and the one adjoining are wanted by a couple of schemers for an irrigation project. They are using every foul means of gaining possession, and the "Interferin' Gent" certainly steps into a hazardous adventure that promises a lot of excitement, thrills and interest for Richmond Theatre audiences.

Oliver Hasbrouck is the heroine, and Harry Todd, E. W. Borman, Jack McDonald and other popular western players are in the cast.

Other film features include Ben Turpin in the Mack Bennett comedy "A Hollywood Hero"; and the seventh thrilling chapter of "The Golden Stallion," starring Lefty Flynn.

TWO HUNDRED ATTEND PARTY AT JUNIOR HI

Over 200 children and their mothers turned out for the Roosevelt Junior High school Christmas party.

Sewing classes of the Junior and Senior High schools, the members of the Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association, and other mothers spent their time sewing clothes and dressing dolls for the needy. Material for the clothes was furnished by P. T. A. and Mrs. Morris. The art class of the school made candy baskets while the manual art classes made new toys and repaired old ones. Students of the school gave gifts and money.

The Christmas tree was contributed by the men of the faculty and members of the Blue Jay class decorated it. Refreshments were served by the Honor Society. The National Ice Cream Company donated the ice cream served and Steve Barbikas and Nell Shultz donated the candy. The school cooking club contributed sandwiches and the school cafeteria the cakes.

Gertrude Engle, vice-principal and dean of girls was in charge of the party. A hostess was elected from each advisory council to assist.

Clarification Of Toll Span Muddle Asked By Law Firms

Four groups of law firms entered the toll bridge controversy yesterday when they filed briefs with the State Supreme Court asking for a reconsideration of the court's refusal to allow the Northern California Development company to build a toll bridge across Carquinez straits. The law firms take the same position as the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa county, who already have a petition for rehearing on file and are acting as "friends of the Court" to have the law clarified in behalf of outstanding bond issues. They do not seek to have the Supreme Court change its decision, but to have the same decision rendered on a different legal basis.

The Supreme Court denied the franchise to the development company because the company was not organized for the purpose of operating a toll bridge.

Those seeking a rehearing contend that this is an erroneous interpretation of the laws and will work a hardship on various boards of supervisors faced with the responsibility of granting franchises as well as corporations seeking franchises, and adversely affect all toll bridges and wharf franchises in California.

The law firms joining with the Contra Costa board are Pillsbury, Madison & Sutro, Dudley D. Sales, J. E. Rodgers, and A. F. Bray, McCutcheon, Olney, Mannion & Greene, and Ellis & Orrick.

WHEN SHOPPING—think of telephone convenience.

At this season, multitudes of minds are centered on a common thought—the spirit of giving. And so, despite the plea of merchants to "shop early," crowds of eager people fill our streets and stores in a hurried, last minute search for gifts.

To avoid the bustling crowds, many clear thinking people turn to the telephone to help them locate just the gift they are looking for; or when time is a factor, to make or rearrange social engagements, to call the folks at home if they are delayed, and for many other uses, both at this season and throughout the year.

Public telephones are located everywhere for your convenience.

Look for the Public Telephone Sign.

SPORTS

R. U. H. S. WINS 2 GAMES FROM UNIVERSITY HIGH

Both cage teams of Richmond Union high school scored victories over University high school of Berkeley in two fast games yesterday afternoon.

Coach Ivan Hill's undefeated team won by a score of 26 to 24 and the Class B team won by the close margin of 14 to 12.

There were plenty of thrills for the spectators in both games. The "big boys" had the University bested throughout the game, the score standing 19 to 9 at the end of the half. Coach Hill then ran in substitutes to save his men and give the subs a chance to show their stuff.

The B's were walked over up to the third quarter when they stepped out and held the score to a tie up to the usual last minutes of the game. Then Korman dropped a basket, bringing home the honor for the boys.

The lineups were:
UNLIMITEDS: DeBarrre (12) and Jackson (7) forwards; Bonini (2) center; Swenson (2) and Baldwin, guards; STBS, Kenny (2), Melin, Williams, Lane, Hall, Clarenbach and Arnold.

CLASS B: Mallani (4) Marcus (6) Morrison, Page (2), forwards; Flynn (2) and Viano, centers; Weeks, Taylor, Oishi and McBryde, guards.

All-Richmond To Outline Plans

A special meeting will be held by the All-Richmond football squad tonight in the Roosevelt Junior high school tonight at 7:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made yesterday by John Walker, manager. W. L. "Doc" Seawright, well-known grid coach and athletic director, will assist in outlining the plans of the team.

All members of the squad have been urged to be present for the session and all men of the city who are anxious to go out for the team, are invited to attend.

Dry Weather Promised For Penn Game On December 31

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 15.—No matter what the weather may be like between now and December 31, the spectators who watch the California-Pennsylvania football game in the Memorial Stadium the day before New Year's will have the satisfaction of seeing the contest played on a dry field.

W. W. Monahan, graduate manager at California, announced today that a large rubberized canvas cover had been rented from the Detroit firm and is due to arrive in Berkeley Wednesday. Total cost of rental and shipping will be close to $2,000, he said.

This will be the first time in the history of Pacific Coast football that a playing field has ever been covered to protect it from the rain. The associated students, realizing that a wet field would seriously hamper the open style of play used by both California and Pennsylvania, decided to secure the cover for the Memorial Stadium. Arrangements originally made to borrow the Pennsylvania field cover had to be abandoned when weather conditions in Philadelphia made it impossible to procure the Quaker canvass for shipping.

Sylvia Seawright Wins Tourney Cup

Miss Sylvia Seawright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seawright, is the possessor of the Edith Tough trophy by becoming junior tennis champion of Richmond. Miss Seawright defeated Miss Aloha Prange in the final of the junior girls tournament on the city hall courts.

Miss Seawright is a newcomer in tennis ranks, wielding the racket for the first time last August. She has exhibited phenomenal ability against more experienced players. She won her way to the finals by defeating Miss Helen Dunning, the favorite for the cup. With experience, Miss Seawright should make her mark in the state tournaments.

THE STOVE LEAGUE'S PARE RUTH

Maliks Defeat Druggists And Stringers Hog Banker Glory

The famous Mr. "Red" Gadberr, known far and wide for his absurd luck, covered himself with glory last night when the Ben Malik quintet, showing a most powerful offense, defeated the Roosevelt Junior High School gymnasium. In the second game of the evening the Mechanic Bankers were slaughtered by the league leading Stringer's Smoke House gang, by a slight score of 13 to 11.

From a standpoint of good, fast, clean basketball the first game was the best of the evening but the second game supplied the comedy element which the first game lacked.

As usual Leo Schrader started the game with two points; he then dropped a foul for another point and O'Brien then sank a bucket. In regards to the last named player, we wish to announce that Mr. O'Brien is Irish! Gilbert P. Gadberr then hit the hole. Bertoni followed.

In the second period Patrique Chatterton, shot a bucket. Ira Duke Morrison followed; Chatterton got one point; O'Brien, the IRISHMAN, hit the bucket; Duke Morrison followed, Mr. Gadberr then made a point; he made a bucket, and then another. The crowd went wild. Several had to leave.

Starting the second quarter, Gadberr made a bet with several team-mates as to who would make the largest number of buckets. A milk-shake was at stake! Hence Gad's activities. He shot a bucket and then another. Morrison got a point; McLaughlin made a point; Ernie Peters sank a bucket; Gilbert P. Gadberr got one; Morrison a point.

The fourth quarter Morrison, 1; Fanning, 1; Hoskins, 2; Fanning, 2; McLaughlin, 1; Fanning 1. Gad got the milk-shake!

As for the second game: What a business! We are giving the score by warters, the numerals indicates the number of points made.

First quarter—A. Muth, 2; Engleman, 2; Gillian, 2; A. Muth, 2; B. Muth, 2.

Second quarter—B. Muth, 2; B. Muth, 2; again; Dyer, 2; B. Muth, 2; A. Huzefka, 2; Dyer, 2; Marcus, 1; Duncan, 1; Huzefka, 2.

Third quarter—Engleman, 2; Huzefka, 1; A. Huzefka, 2.

Fourth quarter—Dyer, 2; Engleman, 1; B. Muth, 2; Engleman, 1; Barbierie, 2; Barbierie, 2; Gillian, 2; Gillian, 2.

And that was that. Engleman shot the largest number of buckets for the Bankers and played a wonderful game. Bunny Muth was high point man for the winners.

The line-ups: Bankers — Engleman, Marcus, Abbey, forwards; Macdonald, and Tandy, centers; Graff, McLaughlin, Duncan, guards.

Stringers—Gillian, A. Huzefka, A. Muth, Dyer, forwards; B. Muth, J. Huzefka, centers; Barbierie, Cornell, Tamm, Lee, guards.

Ben Malik—Beratoni, Chatterton, Peters, Hoskins, forwards; Gadberr, center; Chatterton, McLaughlin and Vargas, guards.

LaMoines — O'Brien, Morrison, Daly, Schrader, forwards; Fanning, center; Moore and McAllister, guards.

GOLDEN BEARS OPEN PRACTICE FOR BIG GAME

BERKELEY, Dec. 14.—Back in his office today after attending the meeting of the Pacific Coast Conference in Portland, "Nibs" Price, coach of the California Bears, today was busy mapping out his campaign against Lou Young's Pennsylvanians, who will play here in the Memorial Stadium on December 31.

"Practice starts today at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and from then on the beehive in the story will have nothing on the stand when it comes to being busy," Nibs declared. "California is going to have a job on her hands trying to beat Penn, and anyone who thinks differently is a few months behind the times on their information. The bunch Lou Young is bringing out with him is the team that finished the season like a tornado, not the crippled outfit that got licked 'way back in October."

Price has not definitely stated whether he will scrimmage the first week, simply outlining the first few days work as "all they can take" to begin with. Nibs will be assisted by C. L. McChell, freshman coach, in addition to his usual staff of Clint Evans, assistant varsity coach, Doc Toles and Dan McMillan, line coaches, Brick Muller, end coach, and Charlie Volz, trainer.

Commenting on the 1928 schedule, Price remarked that it was "tough but there is no doubt but that it is going to be interesting." Washington State, which replaces Montana will have a good team next year, according to reports current in the North. The Cougar freshmen were a good eleven this season and Hollingberry will have a good batch of veterans left over from the team that played this year.

The California football team will have the stadium to themselves until December 31, when the Pennsylvanian party arrives. The Quakers first workout will be at 2 o'clock that afternoon, and will be open to the public. Price and Lou Young will meet that day and decide upon a schedule for joint use of the stadium thereafter. If necessary Hilgard Field, used by the freshmen during the regular season, can be drafted for practice.

While the Bear coach refused to discuss a first team lineup, he made it plain that after today all practices will be secret, and attendance to the stadium will be restricted to those with passes, as it was during the regular season.

BERKELEY, Dec. 15.—The first of the California Bears' practice days before the last Big Game of November 15 will come to an end this afternoon when Coach Nibs Price calls his Bears to begin practice for the coming day before New Year's.

With but few exceptions, all of the thirty-seven men named by Price to form the official squad will be on hand the opening day of practice. Jim and Ralph Dougan, who are now in the San Joaquin Valley, will be back tomorrow, as will the few other players whose examinations will keep them busy today.

Hard work and plenty of it. Nibs Price told his players today when asked what his plans were. "We will start right where we left off at the Big Game, and any changes other than those already announced will depend upon the showing made by the men during the first few days practice. All the present time I do not think I will change the effort from end to tackle, but will wait until next year. The same goes for Norton unless developments during the next week should prove that we need another guard."

Price indicated that he is taking his men through a series of practice runs after today all practices will be secret, and attendance to the stadium will be restricted to those with passes, as it was during the regular season.

While the Bear coach refused to discuss a first team lineup, he made it plain that after today all practices will be secret, and attendance to the stadium will be restricted to those with passes, as it was during the regular season.

A GIFT

$1,000.00 CHRISTMAS PRESENT

For Some One

The Whole Family will enjoy the Comfort, Happiness and Prosperity that this desirable present will bring to you all for years and years to come.

DO YOU WANT IT?

Of Course you do, so will any others.

"First Come - First Served"

HERE IS THE STORY

Mr. ——— decided to build a home in Mira Vista, and selected plans for a five room house and garage that contained everything one could desire in a convenient, modern up-to-date home.

He selected a beautiful corner lot 55x80 that is "just right" for his "ideal home" with a view that would always be pleasing. Well, he built and built, added something here and something there; the best was none too good for "his home." Unfortunately he did not "stop to count the cost" for when the house was finally finished he found that he had gone far beyond his means; he was unable to "pay the bills." The creditors were compelled to take the property over and we have been instructed to sell it for the amount of their interest.

The total selling price is $2500.00

Less Christmas present $1000.00

Net selling price $1500.00

Payable $500 or so cash, then about $10 per month which is what it would rent for; so the first payment is about all it will cost—lot, house and all.

Stomach Trouble for 20 Years

Chico, Jan. 21, 1927.
During the 20 years and more I suffered from Stomach Trouble, I doctored off and on, but the suffering still continued. The doctors said that I had Stomach Ulcers. I had to throw up most of my food; otherwise, the pain was unbearable.

I was recommended to try the Fong Wan Herbs. I took five weeks of the treatment and now feel fine. I never miss a meal and have gained 19 pounds in weight.

The above statements give the genuine facts and show what the Fong Wan Herbs have done for me.

GRACE UTHARAN
GUILD ELECTS
NEW OFFICERS

The Grace Lutheran Guild held its monthly business meeting in the guild hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. T. R. Webster began the meeting with devotional exercises. A satisfactory report of last year's activities was read. After the business meeting an election of officers was held. All former officers were elected.

Those elected were: Mrs. T. R. Webster, Mrs. C. H. Baslin, Mrs. S. T. Himes and Mrs. H. W. Windsor.

Three new members taken into the guild were: Mrs. H. E. Jacobsen, Mrs. J. Torbjo, and Mrs. H. P. Jorgensen.

After the business and the election of officers were dispensed with a Christmas party was enjoyed. Hostesses at the party were: Mrs. P. Zimmerman, Mrs. Donald Himes, Mrs. O. E. Borgstrom, and Mrs. Charles Drexel.

During the afternoon a reading and special selections of music were given. Each one present received a gift.

Mrs. C. W. Johnson, a member of the guild gave an interesting account of her trip to Norway. Mrs. Johnson went by way of New York and from there via steamer. She visited all places of interest in Norway while there and came back by way of Montreal, Canada, across to Vancouver, B. C., through Seattle and on down the coast. Most of the cities through which she passed are having public Christmas trees reports Mrs. Johnson.

A beautiful Christmas tree furnished the center piece for the table from which delicious refreshments were served.

Land Suit Is
Won By Bridge
Corporation

MARTINEZ, Dec. 15.—Valona's famous red brick house, located under the Carquinez Strait bridge of the American Toll Bridge Company, provocative of several disputes of both verbal and physical nature, can be retained by the bridge company until its franchise for operation of the structure expires twenty years hence, according to a decision today by Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie.

The court's ruling was made in an action instituted against the bridge firm by the Crockett Land & Cattle Company, which sought to have the court quiet title to the land the brick house occupies. Had the company's prayer been granted ownership of the brick house, valued at $10,000, would have passed to the cattle company.

The area in dispute, seven-tenths of an acre in extent, was secured by the bridge company by condemnation in 1924 and a judgment of $5000 was given by a jury. The company occupied the land and constructed its bridge above it.

Subsequently it moved to a point below the span a brick house it had purchased from Hans Miller and which was taken from its original location because it was in the path of the bridge approach.

T. R. Hanna, president of the cattle company, claiming that the bridge firm secured only an easement for a bridge and not title in fee to the land claim to the brick structure and sought once to occupy it. He was forcibly ejected by the bridge company employees in a fight that resulted in Hanna filing battery charges against John Hanford, superintendent of construction at the span, and several other company employees.

In his decision today McKenzie held that the "proper safe-guarding" of the bridge requires that the owners and operators have exclusive occupancy of the land. Inferentially, the decision gives the bridge company possession of the home and right to its maintenance on the property.

Richmond Schools To Close
Today For Xmas Vacation

All schools of Richmond will close today for the end of the term and pupils will enjoy a vacation of three weeks. Schools will reopen January 9, according to an announcement made yesterday by City Superintendent of Schools Walter T. Helms.

Teachers of the city school will attend the institute to be held in Oakland next week in conjunction with the four-day session of the Bay Section of the California Teachers association.

Teachers from Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, Lake, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Sonoma counties will participate in the Oakland conference of the teachers' association.

A comprehensive program dealing with all phases of educational work, from both the urban and rural standpoint of view from the kindergarten up through the grades, has been arranged for the conclave. Special education work among immigrants also occupies a prominent place on the schedule of events.

The majority of the sessions will be held in the Oakland Auditorium, although various other meetings will be held in schools and other auditoriums, and many of the district meetings in the local districts.

Speakers of prominence from various sections throughout the country will be present and will include:

Miss Sarah M. Sturtevant, associate professor of education, Columbia Dr. William J. Long, author of text books on literature, Stamford, Conn.; Dr. Fred Engelhardt, professor of educational administration, university of Minnesota; Dr. Henry Turner Bailey, director of the Cleveland school of art; A. L. Threlkeld, superintendent of schools in Denver.

With virtually every city or town of any importance in Mexico clamoring for a glimpse of the young American who made the long journey between the two national capitals in one hop, Col. Lindbergh today decided to make his return trip to the United States in short hops, giving him a chance to visit many of the places which have sent urgent invitations since he arrived here yesterday.

MANY INVITATIONS

Even the Central American countries are all sending messages urging Lindbergh to visit them before going home, and Cuban and Havana officials have sent an urgent invitation for him to return that way. These invitations caused Col. Lindbergh to give some thought today to a proposal to fly to the Panama Canal and from there go to Havana, then flying back to the United States by way of Key West. No decision was reached. As Col. Lindbergh said he would have to study a route across Central America before making up his mind.

KEPT TO SCHEDULE

Ambassador Morrow got on his pencil and offered to prove how accurate Lindbergh had been in his estimate of the time it would take him to fly from Washington to Mexico City. Lindbergh had promised to make the trip in 26 hours, the Ambassador said. Losing his way he spent an hour and ten minutes going around Mexico City and returning by way of Toluca, thus proving that he made the flight in exactly the time he estimated.

From the Foreign Office Col. Lindbergh was escorted by Secretary Estrada and Ambassador Morrow on a drive to the National Palace, where Lindbergh was received with full ambassadorial honors by President Calles. The chief executive's official residence was decorated as for a national holiday. The Presidential guards were lined up from the main gate to the President's private elevator, and as Lindbergh and his escorts paced along the paths and corridors bushes were blown and guards saluted martially.

At eleven o'clock President Calles was waiting in his private office. His chief of staff, Gen. Alvarez, and the chief executive aide, Col. Liman, were stationed at the gate of the elevator to lead Col. Lindbergh into the presence of the head of the Republic.

IN CONFERENCE

President Calles, Col. Lindbergh, Ambassador Morrow, Secretary Estrada, Gen. Alvarez, and Col. Liman talked together behind closed doors for more than half

War Mothers Plan
Installation of Officers Jan. 5

Plans were completed for the installation of officers January 5, 1928, at a busy session of the Richmond Chapter of War Mothers in Memorial hall yesterday afternoon.

The members also planned a meeting in Memorial hall Friday, December 23 at one o'clock to fill the boxes for the tubercular wards in Letterman Hospital, San Francisco. All members are requested to bring donations of jelly at that time.

Forty boxes have been filled at the home of Mrs. Anna Jarvis, with the help of the Pioneer Camp Fire girls who donated cards, cribbage boards, and sets of dominoes. These boxes were sent to the government hospitals.

A donation was given to the joint welfare committee and also the Livermore Hospital Christmas fund.

The Richmond War mothers plan to hold another bazaar in the near future.

After the business of the chapter was completed yesterday, the members adjourned to the banquet hall where the table was prettily decorated with holly berries and Christmas colors and were served with delicious home-made cakes and coffee by Mrs. Mary Morrison.

ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Knoles have returned from a tour of the south. En route, they visited in San Bernardino, Ubalda, Crystal City, San Antonio, Galveston and Houston. At Molave and Flagstaff they encountered snow.
